Duty of Disclosure

Subject to the rights set out in the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 ("Clean Slate Act"), you are under a duty to disclose all material information to Vero Insurance New Zealand Limited or Vero Liability Insurance Limited ("Vero") whether the information is asked for or not. Material information is information that might influence our decision to insure you and if so on what terms and/or premium. All information given must be complete and correct. If you have any doubt as to whether a fact is material then it should be disclosed.

The duty to disclose all material information occurs prior to the commencement of cover, if the contract is varied and prior to each renewal. Failure to disclose all material information may result in Vero avoiding your insurance policy. This means your policy would be deemed never to have existed and any claims would not be payable.

Privacy Act 1993

This proposal collects personal information in order to evaluate your insurance requirements for the purpose of deciding whether to issue insurance cover and if so on what terms. The information collected will be held by Vero at Auckland. Failure to provide any personal information requested may result in your application for insurance being declined. Individuals have a right to request access to and correction of their personal information subject to the Privacy Act 1993.

Declaration

I/we declare that:

1. Subject to any rights I/we have under the Clean Slate Act, the information given is in every respect correct and complete and all material information has been disclosed to Vero.
2. This Proposal shall be the basis of the contract between me/us and Vero, and I am/we are willing to accept cover subject to Vero's policy terms, conditions, exclusions and any special terms they may require.

I/we authorise:

1. Vero to give and obtain from other Insurance Companies, Insurance Brokers, the Insurance Claims Register Ltd or any other party any information relating to this or any other insurance held or previously held by me/us and any claim(s) made by me/us.
2. Vero to use my/our personal information to advise me/us of Vero's products and/or services.

I/we undertake:

To inform Vero immediately of any material events or changes in circumstances which occur after the commencement of this policy or after any renewal.
